WOMAN SHOT BY BAD BOYS.

Mrs. Jane Wilson, the Victim, Died This Morning.

Procure a Keg of Beer and Start Out to "Celebrate" - Get a Rifle and Indulge in Promiscuous shooting.

Mrs. Jane Wilson of Holliday was dangerously shot in the neck about noon Sunday ,and it is more than likely that she will die as a result of the loss of blood occasioned by the wound. In the event of her death the boy who is supposed to have done the shooting will probably have to answer to a charge of murder.

On Saturday night six boys, Frank Shurtliff, aged 16; Ham Ferguson, aged 18; Frank Lark, aged 15; Mark Bean, Holliday to Murray and purchased an stead. eight-gallon keg of beer, which they took back to Holliday. On Sunday morning the boys broached the keg and by the time they had reached the bottom of it all of them were more or less under the influence of intoxicants. One of them then procured a 22-caliber rifle, and the boys proceeded to have a little rifle practice, aiming at various ob-jects along the road. Arriving in the neighborhood of the home of James Wilson one of the boys, who is sup-posed to have been Frank Shurtliff, deiberately fired two shots at Wilson's house. One of the shots passed through a screen door, and the other through the window of a chamber in wich Mrs. Wilson was making a bed. The second shot struck the old woman in the neck rupturing the carotid artery, and Dr. D. C. Behle, who bound up the broken vessel, says that it is a marvel that Mrs. Wilson did not die from loss of

Mrs. Wilson said that after she felt Mrs. Wilson said that after she felt the smart of the bullet in her neck she ran out into the yard to call for help. But the rush of blood in her throat must have choked her, and she was found some time later by her sons lying in a pool of blood. A cot was brought out from the house and the wounded woman was laid upon it under wounded woman was laid upon it under the shade of a tree. Dr. Rauscher, a retired physician of that neighborhood, was summoned, but being unable to locate the bullet, sent to Salt Lake for Dr. Behle. Sheriff Naylor and Deputies Raleigh and Moss arrived on the scene about 1 o'clock, and during the afternoon the six boys were arrested along with Ben Shurtliff and Will Foulks, two 13-year-old boys, who were later re-leased as not being implicated in the ffair in any way. The sheriff says that the boys were very non-committal for a long time, but finally Ham Ferguson threw the blame of the shooting on Frank Shurtliff, who, he says, admitted that he was shooting at the Ferguson says that he left after this admission, fearing that some one might be hit with the bullets. Miss Bettle Jensen, who was with a party of wo-men in the neighborhood at the time of the shooting, says that the shots were fired by a tall young man, but which of the boys she could not say.

The six boys will be arraigned before Justice Dana Smith probably this afternoon, charged with drunkenness or disturbing the peace, and the preliminary hearing will decide who shall be held over on the graver charge of kill-MRS. WILSON DEAD.

Distinguished Pilgrims Spend Sabbath in Salt Lake.

ATTENDED PAN AMERICAN.

Conducted Under the Auspicies of the Los Angeles "Times"-Enjoyed Dip in the Lake - Organ Recital.

Salt Lake City was visited yesterday by an excursion party as lively as it was intelligent and as interesting as it was numerous. The visitors were the party that has been touring the country in the Los Angeles Times Pan-American special. The excursion was conducted under the auspices of the Los Angeles Times, and that enterprising and influential journal has confirmed its reputation as one of the leading papers of the Pacific coast by conducting with eminent success one of the most notable excursions in the his ory of trans-continental travel.

The special train carrying the excur-sionists consisted of two Pullman drawing-room cars, a diner and a combination baggage car. The train was vesti-buled and provided with all the modrn luxuries of travel. The special left Los Angeles on June th and is scheduled to reach home on its return on July 4th, being gone just one month. There was no expense or attention spared on the part of the Times or the railroad officials to make the trip as enjoyable as it was successful. The party was accorded marked distinction wherever it went. At Buffalo it almost run the fair and at Brooklyn the managers of the Eagle simply turned the office over into their hands. attention spared on the part of the Times or the railroad officials to make

General Otis, the owner of the Times and one of the most picturesque characters in the country today, accompanied the excursionists some distance but was called back to attend to urgent business matters. But his wife, Mrs. Eliza A. Otis, was one of the embellish-ments of the party. She acted as cor-respondent for the pilgrims; for she is endowed with rare literary talents. One of the unique features of the excursion was the Times Buffalo Flyer, a little paper that was published on the train "semi-occasionally or tri-probably." Mrs. Otis is a poetess of decided ability as the following excerpt from one of her spontaneous effusions which appeared in the "Flyer" will attest:

On returning to the city they were Tabernacie by Prof. McClellan assisted by Prof. Goddard who sang "Hosannah." They were to have left at 10 p. m., but they were so carried away with the charms of the city that they kept the train waiting for nearly an hour. Before leaving the city they all ex-pressed themselves warmly over their visit in the City of the Saints and at the instance of Mr. Smith they gave

Mr. Uzzell, a nephew of the famous Parson Uzzell, of Denver, will be in charge of the car and will de-liver his lecture on points of interest. All advertising features will be eliminated from the enterprise and the car will be run solely in the interests of tourists, rangers and people who wish their friends to take a comprehensive view of the city. In addition to an authentic dissertation upon the historic spots here the lecturer will interject statistics and information of benefit investors and invalids regarding this city into his brief talks. The project has become so popular in Washington that we are now running society par-ties and it has become quite a fad. It is sure to take here, and we expect shortly to have a special car built for us, at present one of those large 40passenger open cars will be utilized." tered into arrangements with Superin-tendent Read whereby some spurs can to traverse the same tracks more than once in their tour of the city.
